

A FACE-OFF AGAINST YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

Join Middlesex OPP, Strathroy Caradoc Police, Strathroy Rocket Alumni and special guest NHL Alumni, Don VanMassenhoven for The Push for Change - Hockey Challenge.

Watch teams face-off in a friendly game to help fight Youth Homelessness.

On May 1, 2016, Joe Roberts – a former street youth turned successful entrepreneur began pushing a shopping cart 9,000 km across Canada, as part of a national awareness campaign to help end youth homelessness.

Saturday, February 18

Gemini Sportsplex (667 Adair Blvd, Strathroy, ON)

3:00 pm to 4:00 pm - Autograph signing
(Current Strathroy Rockets)

4:00 pm to 6:00 pm – Charity Hockey Game
Middlesex OPP & Strathroy Caradoc Police

vs

Strathroy Rocket Alumni

Cost: $2.00 OR One non-perishable food item donation per person
(Food donations supporting: The Ark Aid Street Mission)

(Monetary proceeds supporting: Unity Project and The Push for Change Foundation)

For more information: PC Liz Melvin at liz.melvin@opp.ca

For more information on The Push for Change go to: <http://www.thepushforchange.com>

PARTNERS FOR CHANGE
Help End Youth Homelessness

UN PARTENARIAT POUR LE CHANGEMENT
Aidons à mettre fin à l'itinérance chez les jeunes

